

Higher Visions For Education

Higher Visions for Education @ CSU is housed at Colorado State University. Our classes are designed for adults with Down syndrome interested in continuing education and development of their independent living and social skills.

Our expected outcomes include increased independence and self-esteem; improved social relationships and community involvement. Themes present throughout all modules are: personal safety, good health (physical, emotional and mental) and hygiene practices, assertiveness, independence, age appropriate behavior, time management, identification of needs and desires, community access and the development of resources and support systems.

Class Location:
Colorado State University
Behavioral Sciences Building
410 W Pitkin St. Room 457
Fort Collins, CO 80523

Class Times:
Thursdays from 6:00-8:00pm

Cost:
$500 per semester

*Partial scholarships are available.
See rmdsa.org for more information and application.*
